

Together we Build

We are looking for YOU to work with us!

Are you looking for an internship in the field of Public Health, Law, Public Policy, Governance, Socio-Economic Justice and Development Governance, Extractive Sector, Management Information Systems, Gender and Social Inclusion, Fundraising, Human Rights, Participatory Planning and Social Accountability, Research and Advocacy, Peace Building and Conflict Management?

Is an experience for a period of between 3 weeks to 9 months abroad the challenge you were looking for?

Would you like to work for a local NGO and make an actual change for the community?

Can you imagine to stay with a local family to get a feeling for the culture and daily life in Ghana?

Larissa Bolliger, Intern - Louis Acheampong, Executive Director - Charity Appiah, Administrative Officer

Come and join our team at the Social Support Foundation (SSF) in Obuasi, Ghana. We are a not-for-profit, independent, nongovernmental organisation. We are helping the most vulnerable ones and support our area to achieve better health, the best education possible and development for all, with special focus on women, children, elderly people and persons with special need such as HIV or disabilities.

We are always welcoming new interns from all over the world and we can offer you:

- A special experience which brings a big plus for your personal development and looks good on your CV
- The opportunity to share your knowledge with us and to learn from us in return
- Safe and cosy accommodation for a fair price in a quite area
- Support in all areas to learn and experience as much as possible during your stay

Larissa, our current intern from Switzerland – doing her Master in Public Health in Denmark – says about her experience:

“I was looking for a small NGO abroad to learn what university can’t teach me within the class rooms: with SSF I found what I was looking for and I would highly recommend it to everyone!”

To get more information about us, please check our website www.ssfgghana.org or contact Louis via email on director@ssfgghana.org.

We are looking forward to meet you,

Louis Acheampong
Execute Director and his team of SSF
